

More details about the programme

Day	Time (CAT)	Event	Happenings
WEDNESDAY 26th JANUARY
26/01	09:00-10:15	Re-turning webinars 	Rose-Anne Reynolds will be engaging with Veronica Mitchell and Judy Crowther who re-turn to their recently finished postqualitative research projects.
26/01	10:30-11:30	Opening Introductions	In this opening session Karin Murriss will introduce the organisers and give an overview of the project with plenty of opportunity to think together and share ideas about this project, why it matters to members of the Collective and what could be included in the coming 2 years.
26/01	12:00-15:00	Glossary activities	Karin Murriss will be involving participants in the doing of some of the concepts that are in 'the Glossary' - an edited book that will be launched on the Friday. See https://www.routledge.com/A-Glossary-for-Doing-Postqualitative-New-Materialist-and-Critical-Posthumanist/Murriss/p/book/9780367484699 We will start with an enquiry about (re-turning) to the concept Re-turning .
26/01	16:00-17:00	Reading group	We will continue our Slow reading of Barad. What Flashes Up from page 33. You can join even if you have never attended before! Joanne Peers will be leading the enquiry
26/01	18:30-19.30	Postqualitative Research On-line Course	Mirka Koro will be leading the discussion and pooling of ideas about an on-line course and set up a working group for this task

THURSDAY 27th JANUARY

27/01	09:00-11:00	Getting in touch through water (East) 	In this workshop Vivienne Bozalek, Nike Romano and Tamara Shefer think with oceans and swimming. Before joining please watch this video and read this text .
27/01	11:00-12:30	Funding proposal writing (East) 	Roger Norum will share his experiences of writing successful funding proposals. These ideas will generate ideas to get other funding for this project. We will be doing internet searches and sharing ideas and experiences. A working group will be set up.
27/01	13.30-16.00	(Collaborative) writing retreat	Karin Murriss will be inviting people to re-turn to their own writing. She will start with an enquiry about the paper Infantmethodologies . It will be great if you have read it beforehand! And it is for postqualitative research for ALL ages!
27/01	17:00-18:00	Panel about ethics and online teaching and learning.	Viv Bozalek will lead a panel that explores the ethical dimensions of setting up an on-line course. With contributions from Romanos Borraine, Nicola Pallitt, Allison Fullard. This is a critical slot for our collaborative development of an on-line course
		Dinner	Eating and drinking
27/01	18:30-20:00	Funding proposal writing (West) 	We will be watching a video of the morning session of Roger Norum sharing his experiences of writing successful funding proposals. We will be diffracting through Padlet and setting up a working group.

FRIDAY 28th JANUARY

	9:00-11:00	(Collaborative) writing, drawing, walking, swimming breakfast	A gentle-vigorous-or-however-you-prefer-it-start-to-the-day
28/01	11:30-12:30	Closing (East) ↻	Quick summary Where we are heading Pooling ideas Getting people to volunteer for re-turning webinars
28/01	13:00-14:30	Un/doing the AcademicPublishingMachine through entangled feminist activism	This presentation by Jayne Osgood (on behalf of Gender & Education Journal) and Sid Mohandas is about the entangled feminist work editors of Gender and Education Journal are doing in un/doing the AcademicPublishingMachine.
28/01	15:00-16:15	Re-turning webinars ↻	Rose-Anne Reynolds will be engaging with Angela Molloy Murphy and Nina Odegard who re-turn to their recently finished postqualitative research projects.
28/01	16:30-17:30	Book/series launch	Hannah Shakespeare, Senior editor of Research Methods, Routledge will launch two books of a new series https://www.routledge.com/Postqualitative-New-Materialist-and-Critical-Posthumanist-Research/book-series/PNMR Karin Murrin in her role as Chief editor will say a few words about the series
28/01	18:00 - 19:00	Closing (West) ↻	Quick summary Where we are heading Getting people to volunteer for re-turning webinars Pooling ideas
	19:00-	Getting in touch through water (West) ↻	In this workshop Vivienne Bozalek, Nike Romano and Tamara Shefer think with oceans and swimming. Before joining please watch this video and read this text . Dinner together afterwards with enquiry in Kalk bay. Everyone welcome!